WELCOME to the 2023 North vs South Challenge

I It gives me great pleasure on behalf of the Board and Staff of Bowls Queensland to welcome all the players, officials, and spectators to the North verses South Challenge annual event.

A sincere thank you to the members and staff of South Suburban Bowls Club for hosting this event that continues growing and is seen as a significant event on the Bowls Queensland calendar. Bowls QLD staff and Board thank all at South Suburban Bowls Club for the time and effort they put into making these events a success.

We acknowledge the State Government for funding and South Suburban, ASCF and White Lace Motor Inn for their sponsorship; without funding and sponsorship this event would not exist.

The players and supporters from around the state will I am sure, enjoy the experience and hospitality whilst in the Mackay District.
Welcome All.

Peter Williamson, President Bowls Queensland

On behalf of Souths Suburban Bowls Club, I welcome the twenty-four players from throughout the State to the annual North versus South Challenge. We are looking forward to watching a very high standard of bowls from the men and women in the three test series over the weekend.

As well as the players, we also welcome the officials from Bowls Queensland and other visitors to our Club. We encourage you to sample some the attractions of our region while you are here.

Again, a sincere welcome to Mackay and the Whitsundays to all attending for the event. We trust that you enjoy your brief visit to our region and wish you all the very best for the Challenge.

Colin Meng, Board Chair Souths Suburban Bowls Club Inc.
